

MANDATE

- Basic, strategic and adaptive research on efficient, economically viable and environmentally sustainable organic farming systems for improving productivity, resource use efficiencies and quality of produce.
- Develop sustainable integrated organic farming systems in Sikkim including integrated natural resource management.
- Centre for vocational and advanced training to promote organic farming.

This is a new institute.